Dear Mr. Casey:

On behalf of Brown University, I would like to apologize to you for the actions of a few of my fellow students. It seems that in the university's attempt to get a diverse student body, it forgot to require that its students have common amenities.

It is a sad commentary on the country and the university when a strident few can destroy things for the many.

I would like to personally thank you for visiting Brown University. I sincerely hope that your perception of this fine university has not been irrevocably tarnished by those vocal few.

Respectfully,

Don Samuels '83
